Civil Action No. 2:11-CV-00084

PLAINTIFFS' NOTICE REGARDING STATE'S WAIVER OF CHALLENGE TO TERMINATION PROVISIONS

Plaintiffs' respectfully note that the Fifth Circuit held that the State waived any challenge to the termination provisions in the 2018 permanent injunction Order. See Dkt. 606 at 19-20.

Having not challenged the termination provisions in its first appeal from the final judgment, the State tried to challenge them in its supplemental appeal from the injunction Order. The Fifth Circuit rejected that belated challenge, holding that the State waived it by failing to appeal the same provisions in the earlier January 19, 2018 final judgment:

Finally, the State objects to the modified injunction's termination provisions. These same provisions were in the original injunction, yet we heard nothing from the State about them in the original appeal. The State cannot now challenge these provisions. It is too late for that. The State's arguments are waived. See Med. Ctr. Pharmacy v Holder, 634 F.3d 830, 834 (5th Cir. 2011) ("The waiver doctrine bars consideration of an issue that a party could have raised in an earlier appeal in the case." (quotation omitted)).

M. D. by next friend Stukenberg v. Abbott, 929 F.3d 272, 281 (5th Cir. 2019) (Stukenberg II)

As such, the termination provisions stand confirmed. And they require "full compliance." Dkt. 606 at 19. Specifically, they require "full compliance with" any particular component of the Order before supervision over that component may be terminated, and, before the clock starts on the three-year period during which the Court will retain jurisdiction, the State must be in “full compliance as certified by the Monitors,” with the entire Order. Id.
